

Carmel Doll Shop, Home of the Grovian Doll Museum is pleased to announce its upcoming Lunch, Listen and Learn Event

Teatime with Queen Victoria's Dolls

Saturday,

October 27, 2018

Our doors will open at 11:00 am

Registered guests are invited to spend a memorable day at the Carmel Doll Shop, where British doll collector, author and researcher, Carol Cameron, will share her knowledge on the subject of Queen Victoria's dolls. In addition, a marvelous souvenir for each guest will be part of the day.

Michael Canadas, David Robinson and Grovian Volunteers will co-host this classic British tea, where attendees can expect the white glove treatment from the staff of Carmel Doll Shop. A variety of finger sandwiches and other tasty treats will be offered. Guests are encouraged to wear hats, gloves and other finery.

The cost for this singular event is $165 per registrant. Attendance will be limited, so it is suggested that you sign up early. (A waiting list will be compiled after our seats have filled.)

Activities will take place at the home of Carmel Doll Shop:
213 Forest Avenue,
Pacific Grove, CA 93950
