

The Grovian Doll Museum presents:

An Educational Workshop –

China Retreat

April 19-22, 2018

You are cordially invited to be a part of our first ever, hands-on, educational seminar “China Retreat.” Conducted by renowned authority Elizabeth Ann Coleman, with assistance from advanced china collector and researcher Kathy Turner, the two will have their “education hats” firmly in place when they present “China Challenges.”

Attendees will not only be exposed to exciting new information concerning china dolls, but will also learn about many aspects of china doll production including the history of production, the locations of early factories, how to identify known and unknown production models, a timeline of popular hairstyles, plus lots more.

The workshop will take place inside the spacious home of the Carmel Doll Shop, which is located at 213 Forest Avenue in Pacific Grove, California. (831) 643-1902

Registered Attendees will Receive:

- A Thursday evening Welcome Reception with delicious food and drink.
- Three days of hands-on instruction with Elizabeth Ann Coleman and Kathy Turner.
- A workbook of printed materials relating to the instruction.
- A souvenir based on a china doll example in the Grovian Doll Museum’s Collection.
- Delicious lunches and dinners on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday are included in the workshop fee.
- A unique tour of the incredibly scenic, world famous Monterey Peninsula.
- Private viewing of The Grovian Doll Museum Collection.

All of the above for $795
